

A BIBLICAL CASE
for Territorial
Secession

By Rick Tyler

FOREWORD

The contemporary Christian finds himself in a uniquely difficult position.

While certain of our predecessors in the faith have faced more dire and threatening conditions during their era of existence, we have the unusual challenge of living in a time of great technological advancement. Such a reality poses enormous hardships as well as significant benefits. We are confronted daily with a host of alluring opportunities that vie competitively for the expenditure of our time.

Ephesians 5:17 instructs us that we should be found “redeeming the time...” and yet, this is far easier said than done. How do we avoid being drawn into the endless procession of worldly foolishness and mediocrity that routinely engulfs us? It is not our purpose to answer that question now, other than to state the obvious fact that we should arrange and order our affairs in a manner that is consistent with the dramatic challenges to our freedom and survival that loom so large in the foreground.

If my people, which are called by my name shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways;
then will I hear from heaven,
and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:14

CONSIDERING THE MATTER OF STEWARDSHIP

God's word instructs us in Luke 12:48 that "...unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required..."

Indeed, we have a towering obligation to make appropriate use of both the freedom and the advanced technology that are hallmark blessings of our time. For decade upon decade the professing Christian world has sinfully squandered massive amounts of time and opportunity.

The forces of evil have advanced steadily in fulfillment of their vile agenda...most often, with little or no meaningful opposition from those who claim to be God's servant people. As a result, we now find ourselves in a menacing conglomeration of threatening circumstances. Antichrist forces have all but taken over the once great and God fearing American nation. The remainder of the western world is even further down the road of Satanic deception and control, while the balance of the world's nations and people are hopelessly galvanized in their devotion to a sordid variety of false and pagan religious affinities. (We would be remiss, at this juncture, to not affirm the immutable reality that in the purview of a sovereign God, nothing is completely hopeless. It is, however, exceedingly unlikely that the God of Scripture will thwart the deadly course of rebellion and wickedness that has been embraced by the teeming masses of present day humanity.)

Yes...we American Christians have been mightily blessed and favored. We have inherited the gifts of liberty and prosperity but have failed to remain good stewards of the same. Eternal vigilance was to be the price of our freedom, but instead, we entered into perpetual slumber. Shamefully, we have yielded our blood-bought liberties at breathtaking speed...and now...we teeter on the brink of full blown tyranny.

Many of the ignorant and deceived fail to recognize the true nature of our present predicament. Cunning deceivers and demagogues masterfully portray their tyrannical and usurping tactics as benign and beneficial. Tragically, the majority of the populace...even those professing allegiance to Christ...have succumbed to the sophisticated deception of our time. As Johann Wolfgang von Goethe observed, none are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free. It is most unfortunate that so many today are living embodiments of the phenomenon so eloquently referenced by the German writer, statesman and philosopher.

And yet...there are those individuals who see and recognize the true nature of the errant policies that dominate our present culture and civilization. Scripture identifies them as the remnant of God...those who have not bowed the knee to Baal. To be counted among such a select company is, in and of itself, a monumental blessing and endowment. Along with it, of course, comes dramatic responsibility. Today's remnant Christian must soberly ponder the intimidating realities that we are facing, and subsequently determine the most responsible and appropriate course of action to be embraced and executed.

I have reserved to Myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

ROMANS 11:4-5

A REALITY CHECK CONCERNING THAT WHICH THREATENS US

Modern America has spurned and rejected the wisdom, counsel and example of her forebears. Such foolish error has been crowned with the embracing of a plethora of lies and vain premises...all in the name of progress and enlightenment. Pathetically, much of the contemporary Christian world has willingly followed ungodly society into this abyss of blindness and destruction.

By the sovereign hand and design of almighty God America came to exist as a nation that was settled and populated by white European Christians. These rugged and determined Caucasians believed that God had placed a stupendous burden and responsibility upon their shoulders. They were students of the Bible, and fully understood that frequently, in the unfolding of time, God required his people to employ lethal force in the advancement of the cause of truth and righteousness. Indeed...they did that very thing as a necessary component of establishing their hegemony on the continent God had directed them to occupy and take dominion of. Our Christian Caucasian forefathers would have unhesitatingly fought to the death to prevent the evolution of a multiracial, multicultural society or nation. They fully understood that God's law of kind after kind was both sacred and inviolate.

Clearly, God had been the author of the existence of the distinct races of man. Equally clear was the fact that their race, like Israel of old, had been favored and uniquely blessed by the sovereign God of scripture. To reject this truth would constitute the grievous sin of forsaking one's birthright...the dreadful sin of Esau.

Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright. For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

ROMANS 12:16-17

In the preamble to the Constitution these white Christian men stated that it was for themselves and their posterity that this prodigious political document was being established and ratified. They would have been mortified and repulsed by the thought that their racial descendants might turn away in fear and compromise from the explicit, time honored law of kind after kind.

We the People

OF THE UNITED STATES, IN ORDER TO FORM A MORE PERFECT UNION, ESTABLISH JUSTICE, INSURE DOMESTIC TRANQUILITY, PROVIDE FOR THE COMMON DEFENSE, PROMOTE THE GENERAL WELFARE, AND SECURE THE BLESSINGS OF LIBERTY TO OURSELVES AND OUR POSTERITY, DO ORDAIN AND ESTABLISH THIS CONSTITUTION FOR THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

In order to insure the perpetuation of their overwhelming majority and controlling status, the founders codified law mandating that future immigration would consist of a minimum of 85% Caucasian. This crucial policy was stringently maintained and enforced for close to two centuries! Only after the body politic had been sufficiently deceived and dumbed down were the architects of subversion and evil able to facilitate the alteration of long established, Bible based immigration law.

The 1960's represented a dramatic negative turning point for America in many areas of policy, not the least of which was the calculated design to thwart the will of the framers in this vital matter of demographic policy. Half a century later we have now become what our founders couldn't have imagined in their worst nightmares. Predictably, we have been overwhelmed by non-white alien hoards who have, quite naturally, imported a host of pagan customs, traditions, and religions into the fabric of what was purposely established as a Christian nation.

In general, the non-white peoples of the world harbor deep resentment toward the Caucasian race. Propaganda has proliferated to build the specious argument that the clear advantage and affluence enjoyed by whites in general, and America especially, is the product of exploitation and callous abusiveness. Weak minded and ignorant Caucasians have long manifested acute white guilt in response to this continuous bombardment of insidious multicultural babble. Instead of standing in the gap to defend indisputable, historical truth concerning matters of racial heritage and cultural preservation, modern hireling pastors and leaders have sold out to mammon and the fear of man, and have delivered the flock over to the ravening wolves of satanic pluralism and multicultural diversity.

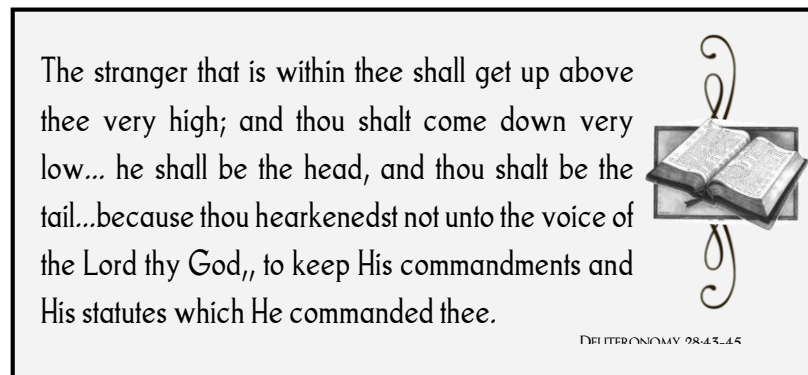

It is no coincidence that in conjunction with this foundational paradigm shift, America has become perilously subverted across the board. If the voting franchise were restored solely to those so empowered at the founding of the nation, we would witness a lightning transition away from the institutionalized insanity that is driving us to the brink of destruction.

The absurd events surrounding the Trevon Martin and Michael Brown cases should serve as an unmistakable warning to white Americans. No amount of bleeding heart liberalism or guilt induced self loathing will ever change the reality that Caucasians are collectively resented and despised as a racial family. This blind, demonic hatred can only lead to one outcome if allowed to run its course. God has sanctioned and even decreed that his people must practice the active principles of self defense. To do any less is the most reprehensible form of dereliction of duty.

BEYOND THE PALE

In many respects America has passed the point of no return. Demographic statistics in modern America portray a truly hopeless reality as concerns the possibility of salvaging the country as a whole. Alien masses from the third world have availed themselves of the opportunity afforded by the treasonous immigration policies of corrupt government. They have inundated the nation in record breaking numbers. A significant percentage lack the ability to speak English. None are familiar with the traditions of Bible based Christian liberty, and instead, know only the decrepit ways of strongman government and a socialistic economy.

In a collective sense, they represent a curse upon the true descendants of the nation's founders as Deuteronomy 28:43 alludes to. That well deserved curse has resulted from the abandonment of undiluted Biblical truth, without which there can be no genuine repentance and restoration.

A TIME FOR BIBLICAL SEPARATISM

Given the vast numbers of non-whites that have flooded the nation over the past generation, it is a marvel that there remain any white bastions whatsoever. Even at this late hour the Caucasian race remains a majority in America...but that numerical advantage is rapidly decreasing. Within a few decades at most the non-whites will surpass the tipping point and outnumber the racial descendants of the American founders. Interestingly, they are gleefully and eagerly anticipating this hallowed moment, for it will be the fulfillment of a long awaited dream...a glorious time when the hated white race will finally get its comeuppance.

Caucasian Christian Americans have only one hope and it is embodied in the words of 2 Chronicles 7:14 which states: "If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways: then will I hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." Yes... the people of God must turn from their wicked ways as a precursor to God lifting the curse, and once again, bestowing divine favor and empowerment upon them. At this point we should give consideration to precisely what those wicked ways might encompass, and at the very top of the list we should acknowledge the sin of forsaking our birthright. Our forefathers firmly believed in and practiced racial segregation because they understood that integration always leads to miscegenation. This sin of interracial breeding expressly violates the law of kind after kind...a mandate that God repeatedly emphasizes in the Genesis creation account.

Modern churchmen who seek to legitimize this sin are thumbing their noses at God's word as well as thousands of years of common sense based tradition. After all, the only reason a white race even exists is owing to the fact that for generation upon generation, our ancestors practiced discrimination in this regard. It is historically indisputable that Christianity took root and blossomed within the ranks of the white race, and that it formed the cornerstone of western civilization, which in turn, bequeathed to the world incalculable scientific, spiritual, economic and cultural advancement.

“ It is historically indisputable that Christianity took root and blossomed within the ranks of the white race, and that it formed the cornerstone of western civilization, which in turn, bequeathed to the world incalculable scientific, spiritual, economic and cultural advancement. ”

Anyone who denies the direct correlation between the influx of non-whites into a western nation and the subsequent deterioration of the culture and civilization is being willfully blind and ignorant. Fear, of course, induces men to abandon logic and rationality. Proverbs 29:25 tells us that “the fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.”

It is quite apparent that White Christians must establish themselves apart from the destructive influences and effects of a society that has chosen to defy God's truth at the most basic and fundamental level. As Revelation 18:4 states we are to “...come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.” Likewise, 2 Corinthians 6:17 says: “Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing.” Truly, separation to the maximum extent possible is the only rational course in times that are as adulterated and polluted as these. God has never ordained an interracial society and he certainly hasn't commissioned a multiracial church. To do so would fly in the face of His own law and word. How utterly arrogant and absurd for the modern church to presume to correct the separatist practices of the patriarchs and all their descendants right up to the mid 1900's. Yes...God's people must abandon their sinful rejection of truth and return to the ancient landmarks.

A DISCRIMINATING GOD

In Amos 3:2 scripture states, “You only have I known of all the families of the earth...” God is speaking to his people whom he had favored over all others. In Malachi 3:6 we read “For I am the Lord, I change not, therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.” Yes, the God of Scripture is and always has been a selective and discriminating creator. Modern, humanistic philosophy cringes and recoils at the mention of this truth. Like wicked and rebellious men of old, they are determined to build their multicultural tower of Babel as a modern day edifice to the deification of man. Those who insist on an accurate rendering of the Almighty and his seemingly insensitive ways, are rejected and despised by the corrupted mainstream of society.

Fallen man finds himself in a never ending quest to fashion a God who conforms to and tolerates the bankrupt philosophies of the world. Weak and effeminized leaders of the modern church would have their followers believe that God somehow underwent a transformation when Jesus came on the scene. According to their contorted thinking, God became liberalized after the advent of the Messiah...suddenly forsaking the everlasting covenants he had established with Israel. It is upon this spurious foundation that modern doctrines of universalism and easy-believism rest, despite the fact that Scripture so readily refutes such aberrant misunderstandings of God's word.

In Matthew 15:24 Jesus instructs his disciples, “...I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” In Luke 19:27 Jesus commands “But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.” In Matthew 10:34 Jesus sets the record straight when he says “Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword."

You see, only the sword of division and judgment will suffice to establish true peace in the kingdom of God. Philippians 2:10-12 tells us "That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; (11) And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is lord, to the glory of God the Father. (12) Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling." Interestingly, nowhere does it state that this will be an entirely voluntary exercise. Nevertheless, our King of Kings will have His absolute way and no deviation from truth, whatsoever, will be allowed!

It is obviously, with such a reality in mind, that Paul references the need for "fear and trembling." God simply will not change to accommodate the whimsical wickedness and weakness of fallen man. To even dare harbor such a ludicrous notion is patently absurd. Modern standards matter nary a whit to Almighty God. In the fullness of time man's folly will be completely exposed and trampled asunder. In due season, the same God who reigned down destruction upon the exceedingly corrupt world of Noah's time...and who obliterated the perverse and wicked lands of Sodom and Gomorrah, will bring his fierce and uncompromising judgment upon all who refuse to acknowledge and abide by his truth.

TAKING DOMINION

Jesus commands his followers to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world (Matthew 5:13-16). Luke 19:13 states, "And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, occupy till I come." The true people of God have a solemn dominion responsibility. To occupy implies the exercise of authority and power. In Matthew 28:18 Jesus confirms, "...All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth." Indeed...when the people of God walk boldly and faithfully in the truth they cannot be overcome. Their enemies will be made their footstool, and God will spread a table for them in the presence of those same foes (Psalm 110:1, Psalm 23:5).

Like David, the servant of God must be willing to walk in courage, faith, and obedience...and stand determinedly in the face of peril and danger. David clearly enunciated the obvious cause at hand, and was granted the grace and empowerment to bring down destruction upon the philistine giant. At this present time, we must stand in the gap as did David...even if we are isolated and alone. David was incredulous that Goliath dared to rail against and blaspheme the God of Israel! His own life mattered little in light of such grievous affront to the righteous standards of his covenantal God.

It was necessary for David to rise the challenge of his time that the stage might be set for the taking of dominion. The Israelites could in no wise embody God's sanctified precepts while simultaneously quaking with fear at the prospect of Goliath's menacing presence. Once the giant was vanquished, God's dominion mandate could logically and necessarily unfold.

THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM

In Matthew 24:14 Jesus says "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." Seldom in our modern time, do we hear reference being made to the kingdom aspect of the gospel message. Instead, there is a constant emphasis upon personal salvation in an exclusive context. Many would even argue that the personal salvation message has been watered down to the point that genuine repentance has become lost in the shuffle.

Over the past few generations, Christians have gradually withdrawn from the sphere of cultural influence to the point where the salt has undeniably lost its savor. We are in a tailspin...a moral free fall that threatens our very freedom and existence. It is painfully obvious that we have erred by altering the course that had long been charted and adhered to by our racial Christian forebears. They possessed a working understanding of the kingdom component of the gospel. While recognizing and longingly awaiting that future time when the eternal kingdom spoken of by Isaiah would be inaugurated, they nevertheless understood that in the interim, it was required of them to victoriously wage all out warfare against the forces of evil.

“ We are in a tailspin...a moral free fall that threatens our very freedom and existence. ”

The record of history aptly demonstrates that as the genuine gospel of the kingdom was preached, the rule of God's law increasingly spread throughout the earth. Western Christian civilization gained the upper hand throughout the world and erected barriers to the destructive power of false religious constructs such as Islam, Buddhism, Judaism, etc. As long as Caucasian Christian civilization rose to its God ordained calling, the world was marked by a growing peace and stability.

Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon His kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

KATAHI 6.7

A distinct deviation from this pattern ensued in the mid-1800's when subversive and alien influences began to drastically undermine the foundations of the young American republic. In the name of progressive liberalism there evolved a variety of movements and causes, the result of which was to marshal a frontal assault upon the biblical, patriarchal, Euro-centric moorings of American culture and civilization.

In the ensuing generations these degenerative forces have succeeded in reversing the tide of historical progress to the point of extreme danger and peril. The fitting anthem of the modern church could very well be "Backward, Christian Soldiers!" As White Christian men have vacated their God ordained, Biblical role of headship and authority, the world has progressively devolved into chaos and pathetic confusion. Simply stated...we must repent of this sin and once again lay hold of the levers of control in this dark and fallen world.

KINGDOM COMPOSITION

Matthew 5:14 states “Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.” Indeed, the church of Jesus Christ is to be the stark manifestation of that city on the hill. It can only come to pass, however, if the professing believers are devoted to the preservation and exaltation of the law of God. The kingdom of God, in its purest sense, is not of this world. The fallen world will always contain a semblance of that which can only be completely purged at the hour when Jesus establishes his eternal kingdom.

Prior to that time, it is the responsibility of God's people to build and advance a forerunner to that splendid future bastion of truth, righteousness and purity. Though perfection is unattainable in this life, it is possible and desirable for a people to live in basic conformity to the timeless law of God. If a society of people purposes to live under the rule of law (God's law) they will be blessed in accordance with the promises set forth in Deuteronomy 28 and 2 Chronicles 7:14. Their society, culture, land, civilization, territory, or nation will be one in which such laws as kind after kind, just weights and measures, basic morality and fidelity, biblical patriarchy, etc. will be properly and diligently maintained...much as it was in early colonial America.

This microcosm of God's kingdom must identify with territorial boundaries, the desire to live in obedience to the law of God, the recognition of Christ as king and supreme potentate, and the understanding that White Christians must be its principle subjects. Let us acknowledge the historical fact that it was to the racial ancestors of these very people that the Christian gospel was taken in the first century. Furthermore, history reveals that only when this racial faction occupies its rightful position of headship do we witness the flourishing of culture and civilization in accordance with the law of the creator.

Where ever and whenever Caucasian Christian authority ceases to prevail in this world...confusion, chaos, destruction and death rapidly fill the vacuum. This is owing to the birthright responsibilities of the people in question. Needless to say, the non-white masses find this truth to be disagreeable and detestable. Due to their unavoidable bias and the wholesale lies they have been spoon fed, they are virtually incapable of seeing and embracing truth. They have bought into the untenable doctrines of egalitarianism and equality.

Traitors in our midst have taken steps to bolster the numbers of strangers among us to almost lethal proportions. Despite these grim circumstances, we must set our sights on the necessity of restoring the law and the kingdom of God. This most noble of undertakings must begin somehow...somewhere.

“ ...much as it was in early colonial America. ”

AMERICA NO MORE

It is quite natural for conservative, patriotic Americans to think in sentimental, nostalgic terms. We remember the America of our childhood and long for a return to what seemed like an era of decency and innocence. In reality, deadly subversion had already weakened our nation like termites eating away at the hidden foundations of a building.

As the decades have ensued, treason at the highest echelons of power has brought forth our present seemingly impossible predicament. A juggernaut of deceptive destruction is rapidly devouring every remaining vestige of what once constituted and comprised our greatness as a culture and nation. The antichrist forces that surround us are woefully incapable of even seeing, much less embracing the truth. They are a scourge and judgment upon us in direct response to our having turned our backs upon the God of our fathers. Isaiah 54:16 states "Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy."

Yes... the vile reprobates and alien hoards that are tearing our once tranquil and prosperous land asunder are nothing more than God's stern provision to humble us, that we might return to him in repentance and contrition. In reality, we have long ceased being the America of old. A mere form and hollow shell is all that remains of our beloved country. The genuine substance and content has become thoroughly corrupted by a cancer of Godless humanism and perversity.

We must exhibit the courage to face this undeniable reality and purpose to do that which is required in response to such dreadful circumstances. A reinvigorated manifestation of God's powerful presence in the midst of his covenant people must be established afresh. We must show forth the willingness and fortitude to stand alone, if necessary, in defense of the righteous attributes of the living God!

America is no more! A godless, pagan empire has supplanted the legitimate republic and it is incumbent upon us to seek restoration of our squandered birthright. We must formally commence the noble undertaking of reestablishing that which has been lost. As is evidenced in the Biblical account of the multiplying of the fishes and loaves, our God is able to take our selfless offering...no matter how small or meager...and multiply it to vast and immeasurable proportions.

HOW SHALL WE THEN SECEDE?

A compelling case can be built in support of the notion that our present challenges and circumstances are quite unique. The timid and faint of heart will be quick to assert that there are no Biblical case histories supportive of the manner of secession being herein advocated. Such argumentation is easily overpowered by the fact that never before have God's people been the heirs of the blessings of political liberty in the fashion set forth and guaranteed in the Constitution and related founding documents.

In other words, we have stewardship responsibilities that are predicated upon the direct results of the sacrifices made by our Godly ancestors. We can do no less than defend and fight for the preservation and full restoration of the blessings and liberties secured by our forefathers. We must marshal all resources at our disposal and prepare to do battle against the usurping powers that illicitly occupy our land and its worthy institutions. We serve a God of infinite power and meticulous order. Clearly, he would have us to follow and employ logical and orderly principles in pursuit of such worthy objectives. Territory is crucial to the outworking of God's plan and will in the earth. Within a specified geographic region, we can purpose to outwork and abide by the law of our covenant God. After all, the Pilgrims were relatively few in number and the scope of their territory was quite limited. Nevertheless, they entered into a compact between themselves and with their God.

From that little acorn grew the mighty oak...and so too can such stupendous results happen again. Success may lie a considerable distance in the foreground, but the longest journey must begin with the first step.

SEVEN STEPS TO VICTORY

The first step to be taken is the designation of a geographical region within which to pursue the outworking of God's will. It must be an area that remains overwhelmingly white in its demographic makeup. Other suitable factors would include being rural, mountainous, temperate in climate, and devoid of significant industrial presence.

The second step would consist of a deliberate effort to recruit and attract participation on the part of likeminded visionaries within the body of Christ. Simultaneous energies would be expended toward individuals from afar, as well as those who are already present within the territory in question. Numbers are not a prerequisite for the receiving of God's blessing and should never be sought at the expense of truth. If, however, God sees fit to raise up a significant company of likeminded soldiers of the cross, notable progress and accomplishments could be more rapidly forthcoming.

The third strategic step deals with the need to serve notice upon the criminal and traitorous element, that calculated and deliberate resistance to their treason is being formally commenced. Such pronouncement and notification must be initiated under the auspices and authority of the God of scripture. Like David, we must exude genuine righteous indignation toward the enemies of our God. They can be counted on to rail and sneer, as did Goliath. Regardless of the outcome we must be prepared to stay the course of determined and principled resistance to evil, remembering all the while, that the bigger they come the harder they fall.

The fourth step involves the establishment of a communications/media apparatus that features print, broadcast, publishing and internet components. Each of these facets of the communications matrix should be designed to create a truth based alternative to the controlled propaganda grid that presently monopolizes the reporting and presentation of news, editorial analysis and historical commentary.

The fifth step of the dominion agenda consists of the establishment of Christian, Bible centered academic institutions covering the entire spectrum from elementary to higher education. At the same time, it will be both desirable and appropriate to discourage the continuation of state controlled schools in that they are so highly conducive to the subversion and co-opting of the youth of society.

The sixth step encompasses the building of a multifaceted security/defense network in anticipation of threatening challenges and actions that are likely to be engineered and executed by those who are committed to the preservation of the status quo. Such parties and personages have made it abundantly clear, that no limits apply in their quest to maintain an ideologically rigid death grip on the nation as a whole. Their instinctive reaction will be to seek the eradication of any form of dissent that strikes at the root of illicit power and its ongoing position of preeminence. Lies, theft and outright murder are the stock in trade of the sinister and satanic cabal that clandestinely controls modern America. On

1. Designation of a geographical region.
2. Recruitment of like-minded visionaries.
3. Service of notice upon the criminal and traitorous element.
4. Establishment of a communications/media apparatus.
5. Establishment of Christian, Bible-centered academic institutions.
6. Building of a multifaceted security/defense network.
7. Undertaking of a literal, formal and tangible secession campaign.

both psychological and practical levels, we must be prepared to resist these evil minions with whatever manner of force is required relative to the nature of their potential mode of attack.

The seventh step will be made up of the actual processes whereby a literal, formal and tangible secession campaign is undertaken toward the ultimate goal of full and successful implementation. Such a process will require the laying of Biblical, moral, intellectual and lawful foundations, as well as the cultivation and design of effective tactical strategies for the purpose of comprehensive application. A central aspect of this step will also feature the fervent pursuit of genuine spiritual revival in the midst of the people who inhabit the territory... for without divine favor, protection, inspiration and empowerment there will be no hope of success.

SUMMARY

What has been set forth in this pamphlet is the mere tip of the iceberg pertaining to the subject of territorial secession and its relevancy to our present challenges and circumstances. It would be very useful and natural to delve into far deeper dimensions of this compelling subject. Time limitations, however, preclude our ability and opportunity to sound the depths of this issue at the present moment.

As we begin to be increasingly recognized as a force to be reckoned with, it will certainly be required that we leave no stone unturned in the marshaling of our line of argumentation. The immediate priority to which we must attend is that of providing an effective introduction to the inevitable necessity of pursuing a secessionist course. Circumstances and grim reality leave us no choice in this matter. The proverbial walls are closing in at increasing speed. As 1 Samuel 21:8 informs us, "...The king's business required haste." Indeed...we can ill afford to drag our feet in this matter. The enemies of our God have the taste of blood in their mouth. They are drooling over the prospect of being able to perpetrate genocidal slaughter against the despised "white devil." We must follow in the footsteps of our noble Caucasian ancestors and begin to lay the ground work for revival and conquest. Our race is the extension of our family. The law of kinsman redemption must form the cornerstone of the forthcoming strategy for battle.

Let us conclude with the words of the stirring Christian hymn which exhort,

"Rise up, O men of God,
Have done with lesser things.
Give heart and soul and mind and strength,
To serve the King of kings."
